DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 27, 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 22-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Valyi (US 3,163,544) in view of Schellenbach (US 5,447,674).

Valyi discloses an injection-molded container having an integrally formed container body, hinge located at the rim of the container body, and covering element. Valyi further discloses the covering element has an integrally formed annular gasket. See column 2, lines 17-24 regarding the method of manufacture.

Schellenbach teaches it is known to provide a covering element of a first material with an annular gasket of a second material, the second material being softer than the first material (see column 4, lines 63-66 and column 5, line 14).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the covering element and annular gasket of Valyi as two separate elements of one hard (plastic) material and one soft (plastic) material, respectively, as taught by Schellenbach, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine skill in the art. Doing so provides a more durable container of a hard plastic and a resilient and reliable seal between the container body and the softer annular gasket.

Wherein Valyi teaches injection molding the container body, hinge located at the rim of the container body and the covering element together, the additional step of injection molding a separate, softer plastic to form an annular gasket is obvious in view of Schellenbach as set forth above.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to new claims 22-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Various prior art closures teaching features similar to those disclosed and/or claimed are cited for their disclosures.

7. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (571) 273-8300. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

8. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number 571-273-8300 on the date shown below:
